

The Flip Side

Part 1

Of Nepal

Juliette Cunliffe

INTRODUCTION

Author, Juliette Cunliffe, travelled to Nepal regularly for twenty years, before moving there to live, in 2009.

She has had so many experiences over time that she has decided she must start to jot down her memories, resulting in the birth of this, her first issue of 'The Flip Side of Nepal'.

There are deliberately no page numbers as her thoughts are fluid and she hopes that you will become absorbed in each page, joining Juliette in her meanderings through the magical country of Nepal, with its extraordinary people, animals and way of life.

'Part 1' will be followed by several other collections of stories relating to Nepal and the people and dogs who live there, many of which are Tibetans.
